

SIMON WIESENTHAL CENTER CAMPUS OUTREACH SUNDAYS AT THE CENTER

DROP BY
FOR THE
LEARNING AND DISCUSSION...
STAY FOR THE PIZZA AND FUN.

Spice up your year with a dynamic conversation about Zionism and its role in shaping the face of the modern Middle East.

Together, we'll create a fun and friendly atmosphere for sifting through the facts about the complex conflict between the Arabs and Israelis. Within a short time, you'll be able to hold your own in any discussion anywhere about this often-controversial issue.

The text is Righteous Victims: A History of the Zionist-Arab Conflict, 1881-2001 by Benny Morris. In this comprehensive work, Morris takes a fair, rigorous and even-handed look at how Zionism changed the landscape in the Middle East...and how its effects reverberate today.

Each week, we'll pick a passage to read together, then jump into a refreshing, informative, sometimes provocative, always entertaining discussion about what we've read.

And did I mention the pizza?

It's a pretty good deal: you come ready to broaden your horizons and your sense of history; I'll come with food and the building blocks for a new way of understanding your place in the continuum of Jewish history.

We'll be hanging out at the Simon Wiesenthal Center and space is limited, so register today.
